

Walk and Talk in the Woodgate Valley

Sunday, 31st July

Timetable for the day

- ✚ Meet 2.00 p.m. Visitors' Centre, Woodgate Valley Country Park
or 1.30 p.m. Dorothy Parkes Centre, for a lift
- ✚ 4.00 p.m. tea and home in time for evening prayer

If you have a space or spaces in your car and are happy to give lifts in either direction, please tell Paul or Jean Martin.

Walk and Talk in the Woodgate Valley

Sunday, 31st July

Plan A – for walkers with transport

Make your own way to the Visitors' Centre, Woodgate Valley Country Park.
The full address is,

Woodgate Valley Country Park,
Clapgate Lane,
Bartley Green,
Birmingham, B32 3DS.

The main entrance and Visitors' Centre is off Clapgate Lane.

Plan B – for those without transport

Speak to Paul or Jean Martin. We will try and put you in touch with someone who has room in their car and arrange a pick-up point, probably close to the Dorothy Parkes Centre.

The walk is around 3.5 miles, 5.7 km, and should last around 1hr 30 mins. It is relatively flat and described as 'easy'. It is a grassy track with two stiles. The Country Park Visitors' centre includes toilets and a café.

Strong, waterproof boots are recommended as well as wet-weather clothing.

Walk and Talk in the Woodgate Valley

Sunday, 31st July

Timetable for the day

- ✚ Meet 2.00 p.m. Visitors' Centre, Woodgate Valley Country Park
or 1.30 p.m. Dorothy Parkes Centre, for a lift
- ✚ 4.00 p.m. tea and home in time for evening prayer

If you have a space or spaces in your car and are happy to give lifts in either direction, please tell Paul or Jean Martin.

Walk and Talk in the Woodgate Valley

Sunday, 31st July

Plan A – for walkers with transport

Make your own way to the Visitors' Centre, Woodgate Valley Country Park.
The full address is,

Woodgate Valley Country Park,
Clapgate Lane,
Bartley Green,
Birmingham, B32 3DS.

The main entrance and Visitors' Centre is off Clapgate Lane.

Plan B – for those without transport

Speak to Paul or Jean Martin. We will try and put you in touch with someone who has room in their car and arrange a pick-up point, probably close to the Dorothy Parkes Centre.

The walk is around 3.5 miles, 5.7 km, and should last around 1hr 30 mins. It is relatively flat and described as 'easy'. It is a grassy track with two stiles. The Country Park Visitors' centre includes toilets and a café.

Strong, waterproof boots are recommended as well as wet-weather clothing.