

Walk and Talk in the Waseley Hills

Sunday, 22nd May

Timetable for the day and map key

✚ Meet 1.30 p.m. Windmill Café, Waseley Hill Visitor Centre
or 1.00 p.m. Dorothy Parkes Centre, for a lift

✚ 4.00 p.m. tea and home in time for evening prayer

key: 7 P Windmill Café and Parking

If you have a space or spaces in your car and are happy to give lifts in either direction, please tell Paul or Jean Martin.

Walk and Talk in the Waseley Hills

Plan A – for walkers with transport

Make your own way to the Waseley Hills Visitor Centre. This is one way; you probably know quicker ways,

- Drive to and join the M5 travelling south.
- Exit at junction 4, turning right onto the A491, signposted Waseley Hills.
- After a third of a mile, turn right onto the B4551, Money Lane, signposted Waseley Hills.
- Drive up-hill for around a mile and turn right onto a minor road, signposted Waseley Hills.
- Drive up the minor road, over the top of the hill and across the bridge over the M5. Immediately turn right into the Waseley Hills Visitor Centre. Please note that there is a parking fee of £1.50.
- Meet outside – or inside the Windmill Café, depending on the weather!

Plan B – for those without transport

Speak to Paul or Jean Martin. We will try and put you in touch with someone who has room in their car and arrange a pick-up point, probably close to the Dorothy Parkes Centre.

The Rabbit Trail takes you round the boundaries of the Park. It is a walk of around three miles that involves open country, woodland and the occasional hill – up and down. The booklet says that it should take two hours to complete but two old people managed it in 90 minutes. There are no toilets on the way but many large trees. There are fine views of the M5 and countryside to the east and west, weather permitting. There are shorter options.

Strong, waterproof boots are recommended as well as wet-weather clothing.

The Windmill Café serves all the food that a tired walker might need and closes at 5.00 p.m.

Walk and Talk in the Waseley Hills

Sunday, 22nd May

Timetable for the day and map key

-  Meet 1.30 p.m. Windmill Café, Waseley Hill Visitor Centre
or 1.00 p.m. Dorothy Parkes Centre, for a lift
 -  4.00 p.m. tea and home in time for evening prayer
- key:  Windmill Café and Parking

If you have a space or spaces in your car and are happy to give lifts in either direction, please tell Paul or Jean Martin.

Walk and Talk in the Waseley Hills

Plan A – for walkers with transport

Make your own way to the Waseley Hills Visitor Centre. This is one way; you probably know quicker ways,

- Drive to and join the M5 travelling south.
- Exit at junction 4, turning right onto the A491, signposted Waseley Hills.
- After a third of a mile, turn right onto the B4551, Money Lane, signposted Waseley Hills.
- Drive up-hill for around a mile and turn right onto a minor road, signposted Waseley Hills.
- Drive up the minor road, over the top of the hill and across the bridge over the M5. Immediately turn right into the Waseley Hills Visitor Centre. Please note that there is a parking fee of £1.50.
- Meet outside – or inside the Windmill Café, depending on the weather!

Plan B – for those without transport

Speak to Paul or Jean Martin. We will try and put you in touch with someone who has room in their car and arrange a pick-up point, probably close to the Dorothy Parkes Centre.

The Rabbit Trail takes you round the boundaries of the Park. It is a walk of around three miles that involves open country, woodland and the occasional hill – up and down. The booklet says that it should take two hours to complete but two old people managed it in 90 minutes. There are no toilets on the way but many large trees. There are fine views of the M5 and countryside to the east and west, weather permitting. There are shorter options.

Strong, waterproof boots are recommended as well as wet-weather clothing.

The Windmill Café serves all the food that a tired walker might need and closes at 5.00 p.m.