

Fellowship Walk around Edgbaston Reservoir

Sunday, 4th October – next week

Timetable for the day and map key

1. Meet 1.30 p.m. Dorothy Parkes Centre for those who would like a lift to Edgbaston reservoir.
2. Meet 2.00 p.m. Tower Ballroom, Reservoir Road, in the car park just inside the Reservoir entrance. There is free parking.

Tower Ballroom/Rangers' Office This is the meeting point.

3. You can walk round clockwise or anti-clockwise. Those who are fit and young, which excludes me on both counts, can go round twice. The path is, predictably, flat.
4. You are invited to tea in Handsworth Wood in time to get back for evening prayer.

This is a short walk but with interesting views across Edgbaston reservoir and outside the reservoir site. Look out for Birmingham Buddhist Vihara.

If you have a space or spaces in your car and are happy to give lifts in either direction, please tell Paul or Jean Martin.

Fellowship Walk around Edgbaston Reservoir

Sunday, 4th October – next week

Timetable for the day and map key

1. Meet 1.30 p.m. Dorothy Parkes Centre for those who would like a lift to Edgbaston reservoir.
2. Meet 2.00 p.m. Tower Ballroom, Reservoir Road, in the car park just inside the Reservoir entrance. There is free parking.

Tower Ballroom/Rangers' Office This is the meeting point.

3. You can walk round clockwise or anti-clockwise. Those who are fit and young, which excludes me on both counts, can go round twice. The path is, predictably, flat.
4. You are invited to tea in Handsworth Wood in time to get back for evening prayer.

This is a short walk but with interesting views across Edgbaston reservoir and outside the reservoir site. Look out for Birmingham Buddhist Vihara.

If you have a space or spaces in your car and are happy to give lifts in either direction, please tell Paul or Jean Martin.